

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE STUDENT

FORMAT OF THE COURSE

The Simeon Course on Biblical Exposition, for the purpose of accreditation through the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, functions as a series of semester-length courses. Each semester-length course, not including breaks for holidays, is expected to no longer than 16 weeks. Including all breaks, no semester-length course may take longer than 20 weeks. The first group meeting (referred to as “class meetings” throughout this document) marks the beginning of the 20-week period. Students registered for credit will be assigned to the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary’s semester depending on the date of the first class meeting as follows:

DATE OF FIRST CLASS MEETING	SEMESTER OF REGISTRATION AT SBTS
Prior to August 15	Fall Semester
Prior to January 15	Spring Semester
Prior to May 15	Summer Semester

SUBMISSION OF COURSE WORK

Students are expected to turn in all course assignments the Charles Simeon Trust’s Director of Training in a timely fashion, as specified in the course syllabus. Assignments not received on their due dates will be penalized. Assignments submitted more than 20 weeks after the first group meeting of the semester will not be accepted and will result in the administrative assignment of an F grade.

WITHDRAWING FROM THE COURSE

Students are allowed to withdraw from courses up to the seventh week of the semester-length course. Once a student knows he/she will be withdrawing, the student must submit an email from their own email account to the Extension Office (copying the extension coordinator) with the reason for the withdrawal. Merely informing the prof and/or the coordinator will not be sufficient to withdraw from the course. The date and time the email is received by the Extension Office will determine the timing of the change. Emails can be sent to: registrar@sbts.edu. It is up to the student to follow up to make sure the email was received. Withdrawals after the sixth week of class meetings result in the administrative assignment of an F grade. Changes submitted after the class ends will not be accepted.
